Re:	10374 Using Amazon Mechanical Turk to create and validate stimulus materials

15-Dec-2017

Modifications are required to secure approval for:

Submission Number: 10374-01
Type of Submission: Initial Application
Date Submitted: 11-Dec-2017

On 13-Dec-2017, the IRB reviewed the above item. The IRB requires the following modifications:

1. Please revise the application such that Dr. Norman is the PI and Andre Beukers is research personnel.
2. Sample study stimuli were submitted. Please submit final versions of all material to be provided to or meant to be seen by subjects, including data collection instruments, evaluation instruments or a link where they can be viewed.
3. Please make the following edits to the consent form:
a. Revise the title such that it matches the title on the application.
b. Revise the form to include a disclosure of alternatives to participation.
c. Revise option #3 in the "who to contact with questions" section to add whom to contact in the event of a research-related injury.
d. Revise item A under the "I understand the information that was presented at that:" to include the following text: "My refusal to participate or discontinuation of participation will not result in loss of benefits to which I am otherwise entitled.

Please submit your response via eRIA. The IRB recommends that you include a cover letter that outlines the revisions. Any revisions made to eRIA electronic forms will automatically be tracked. However, if you revise other documents, such as Word documents, please include tracked and clean versions. This will allow the IRB to identify your revisions.

To reiterate, this item has not been approved by the IRB.

If you have any questions, please contact the IRB Office at (609) 258-0865 or irb@princeton.edu.

Thank you,

Edward P. Freeland, Ph.D.
